1. DESCRIPTION OF CHANGE

Removal of the Mathematics and Computer Science double degree option from the mathematics and computer science sections of the university bulletin.

2. STARTING WITH:

☑ Fall, ☐ Spring, ☐ Summer, 2015 Year

3. EXPLANATION AND JUSTIFICATION FOR REQUESTED CHANGE

The double degree was developed as an efficient way for a student to earn two degrees from KSU in 4-5 years. It was created when the federal financial aid was available for students for 8 yrs of courses. At the time, there were students trying to get both degrees at the university and it was created to help them matriculate more easily through both degree programs. However, there is little attraction today for trying to get two degrees completed in twelve semesters of financial aid. Since its creation, the math unit has seen no students attempt the double degree option except for those recruited into the option when was first created.

Computer Science already has a math option that would benefit such a student graduating in 12 or less semesters. However, if a student is currently pursuing this option, courses or substitute courses which are needed for the completion of this option will continue to be offered for the remaining students in the program.
