CAPS ORIENTATION PLAN

All first-time Freshman and Students with fewer than 30 hours
Academic Advising Mission Statement

- Collaborative relationships with students
- Academic major requirements
- Proper fit between interests and skills
- Information regarding University resources
- Skill development for personal and professional success
Orientation Plan
(Student Success Plan)

- Ensure that first-time students participate in support services and advising sessions.
- Keep new students focused on their academic pathways.
- Monthly meetings with APOs
Assign Freshmen to Academic Persistence Officers (APO)

- Primary advisors until 30 credit hours
- Secondary advisors beyond 30 credit hours
- Faculty members become primary advisors
- Students have two advisors through graduation
- Athletes assigned to Mr. Rich
- Transfers assigned to Ms. Watson and Ms. Chinn
UNV 101/102

Speak to UNV 101/102 students regarding CAPS services and monthly meetings
First Meeting of APO and student

- Student will review the career interest survey
- APO and student will discuss support needs
- Individual success plan
- Schedule next monthly meeting
Early Intervention

- 3rd week of classes
- Midterm
Mandatory Monthly Meetings

- Review success plan
- Make referrals
- Discuss performances
Mid-term warning group meetings

- Requirement
- Speakers
Major & Minor Fair

- Prior to pre-registration
- Opportunity for faculty to showcase areas
- Opportunity for students to learn about various degrees/programs
Declaring a major