Section I.c Enrollment

Provide the number of students in the teacher preparation program in the following categories. Note that you must report on the number of students by ethnicity and race separately. Individuals who are non-Hispanic/Latino will be reported in one of the race categories. Also note that individuals can belong to one or more racial groups, so the sum of the members of each racial category may not necessarily add up to the total number of students enrolled.

For the purpose of Title II reporting, an enrolled student is defined as a student who has been admitted to a teacher preparation program, but who has not completed the program during the academic year being reported. An individual who completed the program during the academic year being reported is counted as a program completer and not an enrolled student.

Section II Assurances

Please certify that your institution is in compliance with the following assurances. (§205(a)(1)(A)(iii), §206(b)) Note: Be prepared to provide documentation and evidence for your responses, when requested, to support the following assurances.

Preparation responds to the identified needs of the local educational agencies or States where the program completers are likely to teach, based on past hiring and recruitment trends.

Yes

Preparation is closely linked with the needs of schools and the instructional decisions new teachers face in the classroom.

Yes

Prospective special education teachers are prepared in core academic subjects and to instruct in core academic subjects.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students with disabilities.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to limited English proficient students.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students from low-income families.

Yes

Prospective teachers are prepared to effectively teach in urban and rural schools, as applicable.

Yes

Describe your institution’s most successful strategies in meeting the assurances listed above:
Faculty and administration is highly engaged in monthly Standards Board meetings, the Kentucky Association of Colleges of Teacher Education (KACTE) and other teacher education agencies and workshops at the State and national level through participation, board membership, and serving as officers. We have strengthened our clinical and field office by adding a person directly responsible for setting placements, training of clinical supervision staff, and ensuring that data is managed through LiveText. Additionally, faculty members have become members of boards such as the ETFs national board for testing in compliance and the unit. CAEP Board of Examiners. Faculty also review was for specialty areas such as the Council for exceptional children.

Section IV Low-Performing

Provide the following information about the approval or accreditation of your teacher preparation program.

Is your teacher preparation program currently approved or accredited?
Yes

If yes, please specify the organization(s) that approved or accredited your program:
State
NCATE

Is your teacher preparation program currently under a designation as "low-performing" by the state (as per section 207(a) of the HEA of 2008)?
No

Section V Use of Technology

Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction
  Yes

- use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning
  Yes

- use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning
  Yes

- use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning
  Yes

Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

Every student in the Teacher Education program must complete EDU 203 Microcomputer and Media in the Classroom course at the beginning of their program. Students begin their e-Portfolio in this course
(using LiveText) and learn a variety of instructional skills, techniques and resources for integrating technology into their teaching and learning processes. Students and faculty are expected to continue engaging in instructional technology in accordance with Kentucky Teacher Standards, ISTE Standards for Teachers and Students, NCATE and Content Area Standards. Through each course, early field experience and student teaching or Practicum (for graduate students), students will enter work that will demonstrate their achievement of competencies as they continue to engage with their e-Portfolio. The EDU 203 course equips students with skills of effective technology usage and exposes student to numerous resources in their discipline area. They also learn how to use commercial materials such as grade eBooks and ho

Section VI Teacher Training

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare general education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
  Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
  Yes
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively
  Yes

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares general education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

All students at Kentucky State University must successfully complete the EDU 310 Introduction to Exceptional Education course at the undergraduate level. These students in addition to being taught about the various categories of Special Education are engaged in learning experiences (i.e. mock IEP development, use of video tapes, case studies). Student are also required to work with students with disabilities through the Early Field Placements as well.

Does your program prepare special education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
  Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
  Yes
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively
  Yes

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares special education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

In the Master of Arts in Special Education, there are numerous practical assignments that require students to engage in the development, implementation, and assessment of the IEP.

Section VII Contextual Information

Please use this space to provide any additional information that describes your teacher preparation program(s). You may also attach information to this report card. The U.S. Department of Education is especially interested in any evaluation plans or interim or final reports that may be available.

"The teacher preparation program at Kentucky State University is designed with the undergirding belief that teachers are liberators through education. We believe that education is powerful and can serve as the source of changing one’s life for the better. We offer programs in Interdisciplinary Early Childhood Education, Elementary Education; four secondary 9-12 program (English, Biology, Mathematics, and Social Studies); three K-12 areas (Art, Music, Health, and Physical Education); and an Alternative Initial Certification through the Master of Arts in Special Education (Learning Behavior Disorders K-12) program. We are a small program under new leadership. An Interim Chair has been identified as the past chair has moved to become the Interim Associate Provost. Kentucky State University is the only Historically Black College in the Commonwealth of Kentucky and produces over 33% or the minority teachers and probably a numerical equal amount of non-minority teachers for the State.
