1	Kentucky State University is an excellent college for young black student, but needs some improvements. The campus life needs more acativities, parties and the student services needs to be more informational and organized.	Jul 17, 2013 3:14 PM
2	Like I stated before I would like for more students and the campus as a whole work towards being more involved in the community	Jun 3, 2013 12:20 PM
3	nothing	May 31, 2013 3:26 PM
4	Family Housing for non-traditional students would have helped me immensely. I never felt like the financial aid and/or collections office was forthcoming or helpful in describing my financial aid package or where my money was at any particular time	May 31, 2013 8:53 AM
5	Student Service	May 30, 2013 11:44 AM
6	There are many aspects of on-line learning that require patience and tolerance. I would just ask that staff be as prepared as possible for such challenges (ie have supervisors set up in advance for out of county internships).	May 29, 2013 11:00 AM
7	Staff are nice, but processes about financial aid, registration, and so on are a little slow. It will be better to be more responsive.	May 22, 2013 1:30 PM
8	The nursing program is outstanding. I am very satisfied :)	May 20, 2013 11:51 AM

11	Have a higher standard for the children you let into this university, they can't be coddled and if you are going to allow someone in that has a 14-17 ACT keep track of what they are doing. Cause if they aren't helping the school by going to their classes or their sports practices than why are they here?	May 10, 2013 12:25 PM
12	maybe letting students take classes only in their field, basic english and math. I think the school should cut classes that does have to do with field at all.	May 10, 2013 8:40 AM
13	n/a	May 9, 2013 11:21 AM
14	Okay with the way the school is runned. However, If you are able to put a program that tranisitions them from high school to college I believe that will initaly help the graduation rating overall for KSU. By getting involved with students while their in high school there maybe a chance for them to take college seriously and be able to get out of college within four years.	May 8, 2013 4:57 PM
15	Hire business professors in the business department that care about teaching their students and not how much they're getting paid. I wanted to go to class to learn, not to listen to professors complain about administration	May 8, 2013 4:37 PM
16	please aware students about education problems dealing with any important test before they have taken them.	May 8, 2013 2:15 PM
17	Building campus morale would be very essential to future success	May 8, 2013 2:04 PM

18	Bathrooms should always have toilet paper in bradford hall. There has been times in which the bathroom went a whole week with no paper towels. The womens restroom in bradford hall also needs a ventilation system because there is always a continous stinch or musty smell. Very embarrassing for visitors to experience.	May 8, 2013 12:10 PM
19	I wrote above that KSU is not a good value, which is true in general, but I received a very generous scholarship which was the reason I remained here despite the lower quality of education. I am grateful for that. I reiterate that the gravest issue that needs to be addresses is the expertise and competence of professors; although I of course had several excellent instructors here, I also had a number that were completely unqualified in every respect except for their possession of a graduate degree.	May 7, 2013 4:11 PM
20	Strive to please the students, and not personal business or network opportunities.	May 7, 2013 3:57 PM
21	The faculty is great, 80% of ASB and Hume can be fired and the university will function the same if not better.	May 7, 2013 3:46 PM

23	The University is overall good with minor bumps	May 6, 2013 9:45 AM
24	none	May 3, 2013 1:10 PM
25	more professor that care about students like Dr. Mara Merlino and Tierra Freeman. more chairman like Robert Lancaster.	May 3, 2013 11:28 AM
26	The administration needs to allow the faculty room to work. While integrating technology is a great thing and is very important in many classroom settings, upper level mathematics courses have no need for a "smart board" and forcing professors to use them while getting rid of a chalk board only takes away precious time for learning and spends it instead in the fruitless pursuit of "looking good" for PR. The school needs to do more to hire the best mathematics faculty possible. The current faculty is great, but there are too many professors who are leaving that the university should do anything and everything to keep, and there are plenty of professors who would love to work here, but due to the offered salary, cannot. Money needs to be provided for student research. There is plenty of research monies available to students in the field of biology, agriculture, etc... but as a student in mathematics, my research has not been supported by the University, only by my professor.	May 3, 2013 11:00 AM
27	The school needs to build relationships with students during there early college years in oppose to when we are finish. The school also needs to find ways to meet the needs of students who arn't involved in any organizations, teams, clubs ect., just going to obtain a degree.	May 2, 2013 2:55 PM
28	KSU is a good school, but it did not challenge me like I thought College was going to challenge me. I feel completely unprepared to go out into the work field. my classes didnt really teach me anything. If someone asked me what have I learned I wouldnt have an answer for them.	May 2, 2013 2:18 PM

29	I have had nothing but problems since transferring into this University. There is absolutely no communication or orgainzation between staff and different departments within the campus. No one has been available to help in any problems I have encountered, specifically transfer services with Mr. Jonathan Lott. He only wants to tell you everything will be taken care of and handled properly and never follow's up on any of his promises. I am here on full transfer scholarship from Fall 2012-May 2013 and until last month none of my expenses had been paid because Mr. Lott did not enter my scholarship correctly and was unavailable every time I contacted him to work the situation out.	May 2, 2013 11:05 AM
30	I have had problems with this school since day one. The transfer person, johnathan lott, made us jump through hoops to get the things he said we would get at the beggining. and the fees for the school for things that we DONT use are ridiculous	May 2, 2013 11:04 AM

32	Focus on the customers (students), not just the university	May 2, 2013 10:52 AM
33	I love my institution	May 1, 2013 3:56 PM
34	Kentucky State needs to work on organization. Also, better professors. Professors here at Kentucky State do not challenge us students at all. One thing KSU taught me waw how to survive in the real world.	May 1, 2013 3:50 PM
35	Professionalism to the fullest!!	May 1, 2013 3:14 PM
36	Work on putting students first instead of overpaying imcompetent presidents who do not realize our falling graduation and retention rates	May 1, 2013 1:42 PM

38	I had a great experience at KSU.	May 1, 2013 1:14 PM
39	More student activites that would engage students to participate on campus, including educational activites.	May 1, 2013 1:09 PM
40	Advisors should be more informed on required classes to avoid enrolling students in classes they do not need to take. The bookstore staff and manager are unprofessional and rude most of the time. It was disappointing not being able to go to New Orleans this year!	May 1, 2013 1:07 PM
41	n/a	May 1, 2013 12:42 PM
42	More school communication and activities for the nontraditional/commuter students. Example, I am suppose to be graduating on May 11th and have not been given any direction from the University yet. I asked for a copy of a letter a fellow classmate received or I would not of known to do this survey, when graduation practice was, or what I needed to do before I could graduate. Need better communications with students.	May 1, 2013 12:29 PM
43	I feel that the campus morale needs to improve, along with the financial office being effective with students concerns, also the process to graduate needs to be improved, by not waiting two weeks before graudation about graduation packets,	May 1, 2013 11:29 AM

44	The staff at financial Aid are extraordinarily unhelpful. Throughout my four years here they have continuously made mistakes with my balance, they have over charged me or under charged me, and they NEVER answer their phones, nor do they return the phone messages. The majority of ASB 3rd floor is generally unhelpful.	May 1, 2013 11:20 AM
45	The attitudes of some of the employees in the Bursar's office and in the testing center need to be addressed. Overall the experience here was a good one.	May 1, 2013 9:45 AM
46	Please Please! work on organization!	Apr 30, 2013 2:57 PM
47	I feel that the students and faculty should have a better rapport with one another.	Apr 30, 2013 12:30 PM
48	Ksu needs to have a set requirement for entering this university. I understand that this is a second chance institute but some standards need to be set. the staff and faculty need to work more with helping students achieve their best.	Apr 30, 2013 11:42 AM
49	I think it is important to make sure there are enough professors/advisors available per major. And as I have stated before to the President, herself, it is important to make sure that the customer service throughout all departments is on point and professional.	Apr 30, 2013 11:42 AM
50	Apathetic employees in the Bursar's Office and Financial Aid (front desk) make a very poor impression. Red tape is evident anywhere near ASB. Campus is poorly lit at night	Apr 29, 2013 5:07 PM
51	To improve KSU in the future, finances need to be prioritized. Think of the students before building unnecessary structures. You also have to give back to the excellent and deserving instructors.	Apr 29, 2013 4:00 PM
52	the survey is too long and this should have been at the first to get a more accurate response to the overall feel of what the students were feeling about the school	Apr 29, 2013 2:22 PM
