1	More teachers that take the time to help students get a better understanding about things.	Aug 6, 2014 9:41 AM
2	Everything	Aug 5, 2014 8:12 AM
3	The assistance needed to complete degrees on time, the courses that are required as opposed to taking courses that aren't needed for a degree, as well as help with financial aid.	May 9, 2014 11:33 AM
4	Administrative staff needs to be better with following up with students concerns. Maybe get rid of Ms. Rankin, she is RUDe to the tenth degree she is intimidating and does not have the interests of the students at heart.	May 8, 2014 2:20 PM

7	n/a	May 7, 2014 12:18 PM
8	There is a complete lack of communication and trust with the nursing faculty and students. They do not respond to questions and concerns. There has been several times in which I needed assistance from the Bursar, Registrar, and Financial Aid and received no response after MANY attempted phone calls and messages. It's a waste of time and money to come to campus to deal with a matter that could have been completed over the phone, if someone would have answered.	May 7, 2014 9:37 AM
9	Teamwork makes the Dream work!!	May 6, 2014 2:23 PM
10	More money for teaching, less for administration. Many improvements needed in almost all buildings.	May 5, 2014 3:37 PM

13	Have to create innovative leaders and students ready to work in the 21st century. Stop accepting everybody!	May 5, 2014 1:23 PM
14	I am not dissatisfied with the library I feel it is filled with great literature works. I feel we should have access to our African American collection to be able to show students they can do it. Furthermore in the 70s and early 80s students at KSU were published. I feel this is necessary for sstudents to be published beyond the Newspaper and Mass Communications.	May 5, 2014 12:46 PM
15	The Staff should show that they care about the university, not act like they are frustrated all the time. The staff should present themsevles in a professional manner and they should know what is going on when you ask a question, not send you to fifty different people. The staff should support the students, not turn against them when it gets tough, because they do not want to full with the students. The students should look like college students, not like they just left the club with everything they have hanging out for the worl to see. The policy of no tobacco should ACTUALLY be enforced with students and faculty. Everyone needs to work together, and know that when a mistake is made, fix it, don't	May 5, 2014 12:20 PM

37	I feel that the classess were all based on one topic, and did not prepare me for the field that I plan to go into. If a couple of classes had been focused on this one topic, I fell that may have been fine, but every class had the same focus (even if it had a different name). I would like to have learned how to be a teacher, as well as how to work in a diverse population. The focus was solely on the achievement gap, and how poorly schools are doing to change that. My courses did not prepare me for lesson planning on my own, working with students in difficult situations, coping/managing a classroom, how to find information or activities for my lessons, etc.	Apr 29, 2014 2:39 PM

50	Organization, I have had to fight and jump through hoops for everything little thing in this school. Nobody can give you clear answers in any office and communication is non-existant. This University has made it extremely difficult to be a student and is reason why many students choose to stop going to school, simply because they cannot deal with the disorganization and constant problems presented in every department. 65	Please be mindful of the living conditions in the dorms during the winter and summer. If the heat is not on when it gets cold students are freezing and they get sick. If the air is not on in the summer it becomes very stuffy in the room and people have to sleep with thier doors and windows open. These conditions are not good for people who have asthma. Also it would be nice if financial aid and the bursar office worked together (Sometimes they tell students two different things and the student has to run back and forth). This can be stressful for a student.	Apr 23, 2014 10:26 AM

71	I believe that our Institution was built for quality and love. Valued by traditions that as of late has been torn. The students are what makes this University stand strong. I believe that the administration needs to get it together, not saying that all administration aren't doing their job but we have to do better together and with that the University will rise against all adversity.	Apr 21, 2014 10:21 AM
72	KSU needs to be more transparent in administration student communication, we want to know waht's going on and not be surprised by something that has been decided and we were not told, (ie, Thorobred Payment Plan). Also financial aid, registrar, and bursar's office, are very unorganized, this school needs to update its data management, and be more courteous, the SOS staff should answer phone calls and help the students, instead of sending them to the next department that will send them right back. Also residence halls need to be invested in, there is black mold in the halls, Chandler Hall had sewer gas, due to broken showers, and the kitchen has been locked. Also there is no Defribillator or reliable security.	Apr 18, 2014 3:24 PM
73	Please help administration realize that there would/WILL be no KSU if we do not have students. Kicking students out will not improve our school the way administration thinks. instead lets help these students that have balances find scholarships to help pay for college. We have to help our black students succeed no matter what. We can start by raising our qualifications. better required ACT scores means better students	Apr 18, 2014 2:13 PM
74	More student and President interaction, more financial assistance outside of loans, more/ profession warning of balances, more counselling on loans and interest, more realistic/educational courses for the real world	Apr 18, 2014 1:16 PM
75	Help students to realize the rich history here at KSU. There is too much focus on changing things and making things different, regardless of how the students feel. The dissatisfaction of the mass trickle down into everything that we do and the way we respond to things... i.e. riots and protests. Just keep the student first.	Apr 18, 2014 11:21 AM

79	Financial office and Bursars need a lot of improvement. They obviously don't care about the students or the law governing scholarship and grant money as well governmental funds. The students often spend more time fighting with the two offices than they do actually in class. It's a crime shame, the reason I now hate school and why I almost always advise incoming freshmen, current freshmen, sophmores, and transfer students to go elsewhere.
